Guidelines for National Taiwan Normal University Fulfilling Dreams Scholarship

Amended by the Student Affairs Meeting in the 2nd semester of academic year 2015-2016 on April 4th, 2016

Amended by the Officer Meeting of Student Affairs in the 2nd semester of academic year 2016-2017 on April 19th, 2017

Approved by the President on May 2nd, 2017

1. The scholarship is established to help physically and mentally challenged students, low-income students, indigenous students, overseas Chinese students, foreign students, middle-income students, students in special family circumstances, and students from immigrant families to complete college education. The regulations are established to implement the scholarship program.

2. Eligible students who have 2.44 GPA may apply for the scholarship. (The required GPA for physical and mentally challenged students is 1.7)

The types of scholarships and the quota for recipients are as follows:

(1.) Quota of scholarship for physical and mentally challenged students: 14 (including 4 students from on-the-job programs.)

(2.) Quota of scholarship for low-income students: 14 (including 4 students from on-the-job programs.)

(3.) Quota of scholarship for indigenous students: 24 (including 4 students from on-the-job programs.)

(4.) Quota of scholarship for overseas Chinese students: 20

(5.) Quota of scholarship for foreign students: 15

(6.) Quota of scholarship for middle-income students: 14 (including 4 students from on-the-job programs.)

(7.) Quota of scholarship for students in special family circumstances: 7 (including 2 students from on-the-job programs.)

(8.) Quota of scholarship for students from immigrant families: 12 (including 2 students from on-the-job programs.)

3. The remaining quota for recipients of each scholarship can be transferred from one scholarship to another based on actual needs.

4. Application Dates and the Amount of the scholarship

(1.) The first-round application for the Fulfilling Dreams Scholarship is open from October 1st to October 31st in the 1st semester. The second-round application is open from March 1st to March 31st in the 2nd semester.

(2.) Each recipient will receive 10,000 NT dollars scholarship.

5. Recipients who are not funded by other scholarships from NTNU or the government have priority to receive the scholarship.

6. Eligible applicants shall submit application forms, transcripts, and identification to the Division of Student Assistance, Office of Student Affairs.

7. The scholarship money is covered by the annual budget of the University.

8. The guidelines and the amendments are approved by the Officer Meeting of Student Affairs and take effect upon approval of the President.
